XI. COACHES CONDUCT

- A. Coaches are very important role models for children in athletics. It is the coaches’ responsibility to develop self-esteem, confidence, sportsmanship, and a positive attitude in the children that he/she coaches. Setting good examples for the children to follow can only do this. A goal of The City of Clovis is to have all of the coaches working within our programs setting good examples.
- B. Coaches should always keep their tempers in control and watch their conduct around the children. This includes practices, games, meeting, or any other The City of Clovis Recreation activity. The City of Clovis Recreation will take whatever actions necessary to ensure that all coaches display proper conduct.

- C. Any coach who is ejected from a game will also be suspended during the team's next scheduled game. Also the right to coach a future team can be denied. (To be determined by The City of Clovis Recreation.)
- D. Coaching Box is the Length of the Bench if a Coach goes out of this box he/she may be subject to a technical foul.
- E. If coaches or spectators display unsportsmanlike conduct during a game, they will be given a technical foul after the first warning. Yelling at officials, players, or staff will not be tolerated.

XII. SPECTATOR CONDUCT

- C. If parents or spectators from a particular team display unsportsmanlike conduct during a game, their team will be given a technical foul on the bench. It is important that coaches explain this to their parents/spectators. Yelling at officials, players, or staff will not be tolerated. Coaches need to help keep parents/spectators cheering for the players and not yelling at officials so as not to take away from the child's experience.
- B. Spectators are permitted to sit on designated bleachers along each baseline Spectators are not allowed to sit, stand or pace along other areas of the court including the sideline opposite of team beaches.

XIII. PROTESTS

- A. Every attempt should be made to handle situation before filing an official protest with The City of Clovis Recreation.
